I just want to say that dreams do come true. Don't ever give up on your dreams. Sometimes it just takes a little bit longer for some of us.

~Robin Thicke

You have to give love to get love.

~Robin Thicke

I've been influenced heavily by great soul artists. I see myself as a soul singer. I sing from my soul - I write from my soul.

~Robin Thicke

I don't like labels, but I do have blue eyes and I'm soulful, so what am I going to do?

~Robin Thicke

I write songs like "The Sweetest Love." Of course I'm a little cheesy. Love is cheesy. Love is corny. But it's also the greatest feeling in the whole world.

~Robin Thicke

Some people go to college. For me I studied music my whole life. That was my college.

~Robin Thicke

I really try to wake up with my music the same as I do with my life, and that is with no expectations. I just feel what I feel that day and follow it.

~Robin Thicke

My songs don't play on pop radio; they play on black radio.

~Robin Thicke

I was seven years old the first time I saw Michael Jackson. That changed everything.

~Robin Thicke

I grew up in a Hollywood family with money, so money is not the reason I make music. I'm as Hollywood as it gets. Not internally but externally - that's my bloodline.

~Robin Thicke

Life is full of constant ups and downs, and all I ask for is redemption in the end.

~Robin Thicke

My gift and my curse is that I really want to be loved. What drives me to make music is love - whether it's shallow or deep or whatever. I want to do things that make people love me.

~Robin Thicke

While other kids played with cars and toys, I listened to music all day. I wanted to sing it and learn it.

~Robin Thicke

I'm trying to create the world around myself to be a place of as much equality and openheartedness as possible.

~Robin Thicke

I hate not giving the people what they want.

~Robin Thicke

Being critical is not something I like to do. I like to appreciate and inspire.

~Robin Thicke

Growing up, I loved Bill Cosby.

~Robin Thicke

I took whatever the devil offered me.

~Robin Thicke

Women and their bodies are beautiful. Men are always gonna want to follow them around.

~Robin Thicke

Like with acting, if you're charming or just good-looking, you might be able to get your foot in the door. But a lot of time with music, you actually have to kinda be able to sing.

~Robin Thicke

There is nothing normal about a musician's lifestyle; I don't have a nine-to-five job at the post office.

~Robin Thicke

I spent my whole career playing it safe, being a gentleman, never doing anything controversial.

~Robin Thicke

I never used to tell jokes on stage. Now I'm cutting up jokes all night long.

~Robin Thicke

I'd like to collaborate with Jay-Z and Mary J. Blige.

~Robin Thicke

There's an audience for all kinds of great art.

~Robin Thicke

Entertain the people. Give them something they're not ready for, make them talk.

~Robin Thicke

I'm going to go with ZZ Top -- they're my faves . . . because of the whole thing that they do with the guitars and the old Father Time beards.

~Robin Thicke

Right now, with terrorism and poverty and Wall Street and Social Security having problems, nudity should not be the issue.

~Robin Thicke

I love 'Game of Thrones.' That's my favorite.
