I really wanted to be nasty and mean and bad. It's so much easier than being the good girl

~Robin Tunney

My friends that are snobs think its cool I did a movie with Albert Brooks.

~Robin Tunney

A film's success or failure is strictly on the director's shoulders.

~Robin Tunney

People work really hard to get to a certain point. But they have to work just as hard to stay there

~Robin Tunney

In acting there's two different things: You're either pitching in a scene, or you're catching.

~Robin Tunney

Actors love mental disorders, dialects, and corsets. Give them one of the three and they're happy

~Robin Tunney

I did a film about the Zodiac Killer. It turned out well

~Robin Tunney

I'm attracted to roles where I don't have to wear makeup.

~Robin Tunney

After I read all the medical journals and watched all the documentaries, I still didn't understand the physical sensation of ticking and where it comes from and what it feels like

~Robin Tunney

I'm from Chicago. My grandfather was a policeman, and my aunts are married to policemen.

~Robin Tunney

I'm really proud to have been in The Craft. I will always be that chick from The Craft, no matter what I do.

~Robin Tunney

The Craft was what it was. People who respond to that movie respond to it really strongly.

~Robin Tunney

Im a firm believer that actors take to work who they arent at home. People show their other self in their art or in their work.

~Robin Tunney

You don't make movies to win awards. You make movies because you want people to see them.

~Robin Tunney

I like watching a man boss everybody around. It's so sexy

~Robin Tunney

People do eventually see something that's quality.

~Robin Tunney

I've quoted Lost in America several times.

~Robin Tunney

After I do a big movie I get offered big movies. But I always do the weirdest indie.

~Robin Tunney

I haven't really done a lot of comedies. I don't know why, because I really like them

~Robin Tunney

Thirty years ago, there was definitely a huge difference between men and women, and the man wanting to feel like the protector, and not scare the wife

~Robin Tunney

Movies are getting more and more expensive to distribute. You need a lot of money to get people into theaters

~Robin Tunney

I usually play disenfranchised youth
