If you're dedicated, if it's something that lives and breathes in your heart, then you've simply got to go ahead and do it.

~Rodney Crowell

Pain comes like the weather, but joy is a choice.

~Rodney Crowell

He speaks four letter language because his mind is small. His voice is like venom, I don't like him at all.

~Rodney Crowell

In life's rich beauty pageant we put children on a stage, said flash your soft white belly child, but just don't act your age.

~Rodney Crowell

Don't compromise your heart for something crass.

~Rodney Crowell

It's hard to kiss the lips at night that chew your ass out all day long...

~Rodney Crowell

I figure as an artist the best thing you can do is follow your heart - and if your heart is marketable, then you win.

~Rodney Crowell

The poetry of country music will survive.

~Rodney Crowell

You learn how to do good work by being honest with yourself.

~Rodney Crowell

[My parents] worked hard all week long, and the way they celebrated and rejoiced in life was by making music on weekends. And that music was Country Music.

~Rodney Crowell

God gave me wisdom, but the devil's got style.

~Rodney Crowell

Try but don't try too hard. Just try hard enough, and things will go better.

~Rodney Crowell

Every now and then I'll get seduced by the idea of money, and I'll take a stab at that...and I fall flat on my ass. I've never written a lasting song with that mindset. It doesn't work.

~Rodney Crowell

Time to go inward, man, I hope I have the nerve, to take inventory of the causes that I serve.

~Rodney Crowell

A fist in the face is all you deserve from love you've misplaced.

~Rodney Crowell

It evoked Picasso and Miles Davis for me â€” two great artists who totally indulged themselves in their work and who they were, but they certainly didn't give a damn what other people thought.

~Rodney Crowell

Time to go inward would you believe that I'm afraid to stare down the barrel of choices I have made.

~Rodney Crowell

If you get a song right for its usage at the time, it can be useful to others. ...Those songs are more friendly to other artists looking for material.
