I'm very close to the pro-life movement.

~Roger Mahony

I personally believe, as church law sets out, that sanctions are an absolute last resort, particularly penal sanctions of depriving people of the sacraments.

~Roger Mahony

It's hard to determine where lies culpability.

~Roger Mahony

The church also does not condone a broken immigration system in the U.S., one that too easily can lead to the exploitation, abuse and even death of immigrants.

~Roger Mahony

With respect to Holy Communion, it is up to the communicant to decide whether they are in a state of grace and worthy to receive the Eucharist. Each one of us makes that decision.

~Roger Mahony

Canon law itself says for one case of guilt, a priest can be dismissed from the clerical state. One.

~Roger Mahony

Immigration should be enforced in a proportional and humane manner.

~Roger Mahony

By and large the United States has been able to resist the temptation to close its doors to the world.

~Roger Mahony

I found out that many of our Catholics simply don't know what the church teaches, and why, on a lot of issues, and therefore are saying things that they think are okay. They simply don't know.

~Roger Mahony

The nature of our two main political parties has changed in the United States.
