Sanctity has to do with gratitude. To be a saint is to be fueled by gratitude, nothing more and nothing less.

~Ronald Rolheiser

We get ready for death by beginning to live life as we should have been living it all along.

~Ronald Rolheiser

Becoming like Jesus is as much as about having a relaxed and joyful heart as it is about believing and doing the right thing, as much about proper energy as about proper truth.

~Ronald Rolheiser

We prepare to die by pushing ourselves to love less narrowly. In that sense, readying ourselves for death is really an ever-widening entry into life.

~Ronald Rolheiser

Grace, not willpower, is what ultimately empowers us to live loving lives. Creativity, both in what spawns within the artist and the artifact, can be a vital source of that grace.

~Ronald Rolheiser

Resiliency is the key to love.

~Ronald Rolheiser

The God of the incarnation is more domestic than monastic.

~Ronald Rolheiser

Without making any moral judgements whatsoever, one can say that self-indulgence and excessive self-preoccupation are the antithesis of genuine awareness.

~Ronald Rolheiser

Every choice is a thousand renunciations. To choose one thing is to turn one's back on many others.
