I don't walk around with a cowboy hat. I did get a tattoo that says 'cowboy' that's a bit of an over-compensation, probably.

~Ronnie Dunn

I'm from Oklahoma. I mean, you can't have good hair in Oklahoma. That's why everyone wears hats. The wind just messes it up.

~Ronnie Dunn

I don't have any hobbies. Music is my hobby.

~Ronnie Dunn

My own grandmother went to great lengths to make sure I knew simple things like how and when to open the door for a lady. And the best thing my mama taught me was to pray.

~Ronnie Dunn

Country fans are the most loyal in the world.

~Ronnie Dunn

I grew up in trailer houses in New Mexico, Arkansas, Texas and Oklahoma.

~Ronnie Dunn

I don't even know how to spell 'legacy!'

~Ronnie Dunn

I went to 13 schools in 12 years. We moved all over the place. Music was the only thing that I could get behind... I wasn't that good at socializing. I'm still not.

~Ronnie Dunn

I do have to step out and take time to let people know that I'm Ronnie Dunn and not Brooks and Dunn.

~Ronnie Dunn

The music has to drive you. That's just it. You follow it. You follow the songs.

~Ronnie Dunn

I grew up very modest, and I never forget that.

~Ronnie Dunn

Sometimes, I work a little more from emotion than I do from rational thought.

~Ronnie Dunn

My preference is 3,000, maybe 5,000-seat venues.

~Ronnie Dunn

I'm not a Republican, and I'm not a Democrat.

~Ronnie Dunn

During college I realized I had a music predisposition and really got involved in it. I started playing bass guitar. That was how I began to fit in.
