By the time a child reaches out to an adult, the vast majority of kids have been dealing with the bullying and trying to ignore it for a long time.

~Rosalind Wiseman

I'm sorry that people are so jealous of me [Gretchen Wieners], but I can't help it that I'm popular.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Sometimes bullies are your friends and very rarely do bullying prevention tips acknowledge this fact or what to do about it.

~Rosalind Wiseman

So many women keep their anger inside and let it build until they explode and then people blow them off again.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Being a parent does not give you an excuse for bad manners.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Communicating a passionate response to world events is no longer limited to protests and rallies.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Nobody ever talks about the mean things that girls do to each other.

~Rosalind Wiseman

As an expert, I can deal with complex problems. As a mother it is much, much harder.

~Rosalind Wiseman

In my own family, my mother had my sister when I was 15 and for various reasons, I was extremely involved in raising her.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Boys and boys' body image and clothes have become just as important an issue for boys as for girls.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Kids don't like being put into boxes, and your kid can act in different ways in different situations.

~Rosalind Wiseman

Mothers and fathers do really crazy things with the best of intentions.

~Rosalind Wiseman

As a teacher myself I've been in situations where parents come at you, and sometimes parents come across like the teacher doesn't want the best for their kid and it can be really, really hurtful.

~Rosalind Wiseman

See, at a certain point it becomes cool to be boy crazy. That happens in sixth grade, and it gives you so much social status, particularly in an all-girls school, if you can go up and talk to boys.

~Rosalind Wiseman

You can't make someone be your best friend.
