Until we meet again, may the good Lord take a liking to you.

~Roy Rogers

If there were no valleys of sadness and death, we could never really appreciate the sunshine of happiness on the mountain top.

~Roy Rogers

When you're young and fall off a horse, you may break something. When you're my age and you fall off, you splatter.

~Roy Rogers

Today they're making pictures that I wouldn't want Trigger to see.

~Roy Rogers

I always feel a responsibility to the kids, to be somebody they could look up to.

~Roy Rogers

I did pretty good for a guy who never finished high school and used to yodel at square dances.

~Roy Rogers

When my time comes, just skin me and put me up there on Trigger, just as though nothing had ever changed.

~Roy Rogers

The world changed. Hollywood changed. I think we've lost something, and we don't know how to get it back.

~Roy Rogers

People are always asking me why they don't make Westerns like they used to.

~Roy Rogers

What's a butterfly garden without butterflies?

~Roy Rogers

We were so far back in the woods, they almost had to pipe in sunlight.

~Roy Rogers

Christmas is telling time-wondering time. Wonder enough about it, and you'll know, and you'll tell about it.

~Roy Rogers

I'm an introvert at heart... And show business - even though I've loved it so much - has always been hard for me.

~Roy Rogers

I was raised on a little farm about 12 miles out of Portsmouth, Ohio.

~Roy Rogers

You couldn't beg, borrow, or steal a job in 1931, 1932... it was really tough.

~Roy Rogers

The station put us on staff at $35 a week... and I mean every week.
