The candle of liberty has always been kept lit by a vigilant few.

~Russell Pearce

Of course a politician's promise isn't worth the paper it's written on.

~Russell Pearce

You know, you don't retreat in the defense of freedom. You don't retreat in the defense of moral government and limited government. You don't retreat because people are going to defend bad things.

~Russell Pearce

In Arizona we have passed laws to free our people so that they can defend themselves and their loved ones. You cannot predict where evil will raise its head, but you can be prepared for it.

~Russell Pearce

In the absence of a limitation on local enforcement powers, the states are bound by the Supremacy Clause of the United States Constitution to enforce violations of the federal immigration laws.

~Russell Pearce

No matter how many lawyers and lawsuits Obama throws at Arizona, we will have the American people and the Constitution on our side.

~Russell Pearce

It takes four private-sector jobs to support every public-sector employee.

~Russell Pearce

Illegal is not a race, it is a crime.

~Russell Pearce

If being recalled is the price for keeping one's promises, then so be it.

~Russell Pearce

I mean, that's a sad day in America when you're recalled because you did what you said you were going to do, and the public voted you in to do that.

~Russell Pearce

Arizona has become a national leader in the restoration of the Rule of Law, with over 100,000 illegal aliens having left the state since 2007.

~Russell Pearce

One of the things I'm always proud of is 'Promises made, promises kept.' I've never ever not done what I've said I'm going to do.
