Make what you most need to find

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

If you're not yourself, who will be?

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

Honor your humanness and all of your feelings - the messy ones, the growing pains, the ache - because we can't have the dark without the light.

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

Telling the truth is like exposing the underside of our wings. We only see that part when we fly.

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

I am afraid to show you who I really am, because if I show you who I really am, you might not like it--and that's all I got.

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

I feel quite lost INSIDE myself, like I'm looking for my train tracks for my life, as if they would just appear and solve the growing questions I seem to face (my reflection in the morning).

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

I have learned that trying again is important and decisiveness is good. I have learned that silence hurts. I have learned about starting over and releasing pride.

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

I have learned that frustration is allowed and talking it through is necessary.

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

I have learned that I am enough... I have learned that no one else can LOVE ME - FOR ME.

~Sabrina Ward Harrison

I have learned to take a bit more off and rest a little deeper.
