

Sam Brownback Quotes

*Children, People, Believe, Thinking, Law, Political, Years, Numbers, Issues,
Justice, Government, Decision, Needs, Moving, Giving, Want, Father, Country, Strong, Rights*

It is time for the government of China to stop holding innocent religious figures in captivity merely for peacefully protesting China's occupation of Tibet.

~Sam Brownback

As we consider the fast pace of scientific and technological progress in our modern world, we must not lose our moral compass and give way to 'free market eugenics'.

~Sam Brownback

My dad farmed, my granddad was a farmer. I wanted to be a farmer.

~Sam Brownback

I think we just need to stick to our knitting on the topics and the subjects the American people care about.

~Sam Brownback

I went to a number of foreign countries, and during whenever I went, I would try to go to an orphanage or a home for children. And I was seeing thousands of kids around the world that needed homes.

~Sam Brownback

Let's create a legal system that can work.

~Sam Brownback

Unborn children can experience pain even more so than adults as the baby has more pain receptors per square inch than at any other time in its life.

~Sam Brownback

We must take proactive steps to promote democracy and human rights abroad.

~Sam Brownback

I do a number of things working on human rights issues, prison recidivism rates, and then I also push and have worked a lot on the social issues of rebuilding the family.

~Sam Brownback

We must do everything we can to be more aggressive in confronting Syria about what they are doing in Iraq.

~Sam Brownback

I believe in the sanctity of marriage.

~Sam Brownback

To kill [children in the womb] makes us all the poorer, insensitive, calloused and jaded.

~Sam Brownback

It is far easier to get divorced from somebody you've been married to for 10 years and have three children by than to fire somebody that's worked for you for one year.

~Sam Brownback

The people believed that while the courts would be independent, they would defer to the political branches on policy issues.

~Sam Brownback

I always think that the party that offers the most hope and ideas for the future is the party that wins.

~Sam Brownback

Seats on the [Court] bench are not reserved for causes or interests. They're given to those who will uphold the rule of law so long as the nominee is well-qualified to interpret and apply the law.

~Sam Brownback

I enjoyed working with Ted Kennedy.

~Sam Brownback

The Supreme Court has also issued and never reversed a number of decisions that are repugnant to the Constitution's vision of human dignity and equality.

~Sam Brownback

I'd pull my little brother on our motorcycle on an inner tube behind it. We would go fishing, we would hunt some, growing up.

~Sam Brownback

Everybody has values. Now, you know it may be formed in a secular setting, it may be formed in an intellectual setting, but everybody comes forward with values.

~Sam Brownback

I do think there's a lot more we can do on the life agenda.

~Sam Brownback

I want to note that, historically, the make-up of the court has changed just as elected branches have change.

~Sam Brownback

If you get married, you lose all your benefits. That's insane! We should give people bonuses for getting married, and sending signals and talking about it to the society.

~Sam Brownback

Politics are important but your soul lasts forever. So, you know, you make ... decisions on what you think is right or wrong and then you just go forward.

~Sam Brownback

I believe you [Samuel Alito] and others would look and say that the role of the courts is limited and it's not to decide political matters.

~Sam Brownback

What I find is most people have a civics book understanding for how Congress works and how a bill moves.

~Sam Brownback

Children of those who have been incarcerated are five times more likely to go to prison than children of parents who have never been incarcerated. The sins of the father visiting the child.

~Sam Brownback

The next president needs to know foreign policy and not learn it on the job.

~Sam Brownback

Most Americans want judges who will stick to interpreting the law rather than making it.

~Sam Brownback

Common sense should tell us that positively reinforcing sadistic behavior, as these games do, cannot be good for our children.

~Sam Brownback

Everybody will say that they're not opposed to immigration; they're opposed to illegal immigration. That's what I'm saying.

~Sam Brownback

I'm a Ronald Reagan conservative. I'm an economic conservative, I'm strong military. But I also voice and speak and work hard on the social issues.

~Sam Brownback

I believe, assume the power to decide more political than legal issues in nature, the people naturally focus less on the law and more on the lawyers that are chosen really to administer the law.

~Sam Brownback

[Jane] Roe has made it not only possible, but has found it constitutional to kill a whole class of people, simply because of their genetic make-up.

~Sam Brownback

We are at our best when we help the weakest. The weak make us strong.

~Sam Brownback

I stated at Justice [John] Roberts' hearing, the court's injected itself into many of the political debates of our day.

~Sam Brownback

Related Links:

- Children Quotes
- People Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Law Quotes
- Political Quotes
- Years Quotes
- Numbers Quotes
- Issues Quotes
- Justice Quotes
- Government Quotes
- Decision Quotes
- Needs Quotes
- Moving Quotes
- Giving Quotes
- Want Quotes
- Father Quotes
- Country Quotes
- Strong Quotes
- Rights Quotes