I didn't set out to be famous; if I'd wanted that, I would have gone on Big Brother.

~Sam Worthington

A mate of mine told me recently, 'It's the first time I've seen you work, Worthington.' I thought that was quite funny, but he was right.

~Sam Worthington

Most actors go, I read the script and fell in love with it; I fall in love with the directors.

~Sam Worthington

When you're working with friends, unless the material is right, our friendship could end.

~Sam Worthington

You've always got to be smart enough to go 'Well they're going to have to bring some of their own in'. We don't want to be a monopoly where we get shoved out, it has to be symbiotic.

~Sam Worthington

Everything is backwards now, like out there is the true world, and in here is the dream.

~Sam Worthington

Each job you have has it's own challenges. One of the great things about my job, is that each film is a different journey.

~Sam Worthington

I want a movie to be satisfying for an audience. That sense of having to get it done, no matter what cost, is what I like.

~Sam Worthington

I've lost love. I've tried to reclaim a lost love and didn't know how to do it.

~Sam Worthington

All you need in any industry is someone to back you, and Jim Cameron backed me up.

~Sam Worthington

Patriots is quite simple; there's seven continents in the world, if you had to sacrifice one continent and make it six would you do it?

~Sam Worthington

You get to go and play with the big boys, it's a very privileged thing for us to do. So I'm sure we have more ideas than what I actually have time for.

~Sam Worthington

The high mountains are barren, but the low valleys are covered over with corn; and accordingly the showers of God's grace fall into lowly hearts and humble souls.

~Sam Worthington

I don't mind being in studios, and I don't mind being out in nature. They're two different ways of making movies.

~Sam Worthington

I think any actor who talks in beatings-up is just talking himself up. I tend to not bring them up.
