The stars that have most glory have no rest.

~Samuel Daniel

Beauty, sweet love, is like the morning dew, Whose short refresh upon tender green, Cheers for a time, but till the sun doth show And straight is gone, as it had never been.

~Samuel Daniel

Thus doth the ever-changing course of things Run a perpetual circle, ever turning; And that same day, that highest glory brings, Brings us unto the point of back-returning.

~Samuel Daniel

Care-charmer Sleep, son of the sable Night, Brother to Death, in silent darkness born; Relive my languish, and restore the light.

~Samuel Daniel

The greatest works of admiration, And all the fair examples of renown. Out of distress and misery are grown.

~Samuel Daniel

Love is a sickness full of woes, all remedies refusing.

~Samuel Daniel

Pow'r above pow'rs! O heavenly eloquence! That with the strong rein of commanding words, Dost manage, guide, and master th' eminence Of men's affections, more than all their swords!

~Samuel Daniel

Love is a sickness full of woes, All remedies refusing; A plant that with most cutting grows, Most barren with best using.

~Samuel Daniel

Striving to tell his woes, words would not come; For light cares speak, when mighty griefs are dumb.

~Samuel Daniel

Custom, that is before all law; Nature, that is above all art.

~Samuel Daniel

Flattery, the dangerous nurse of vice.

~Samuel Daniel

The absent danger greater still appears less fears he who is near the thing he fears.

~Samuel Daniel

This many-headed monster, Multitude.

~Samuel Daniel

Th aspirer, once attained unto the top, Cuts off those means by which himself got up.

~Samuel Daniel

And for the few that only lend their ear, That few is all the world.

~Samuel Daniel

When better cherries are not to be had, We needs must take the seeming best of bad.

~Samuel Daniel

We come to know best what men are, in their worse jeopardizes.

~Samuel Daniel

This is that rest this vain world lends, To end in death that all things ends.

~Samuel Daniel

Man is a Creature of a wilful Head, And hardly driven is, but eas'ly led.

~Samuel Daniel

So false is faction, and so smooth a liar, As that it never had a side entire.

~Samuel Daniel

Sacred religion! mother of form and fear.

~Samuel Daniel

But years hath done this wrong, To make me write too much, and live too long.

~Samuel Daniel

The wise are above books.
