I grow gnostic. It is the last phase.

~Samuel

The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce. You can't weigh the soul of a man with a bar of pig-iron.

~Samuel

The LORD sees not as man sees; man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart.

~Samuel

Everyone, rich or poor, deserves a shelter for the soul.

~Samuel

In the supposed state of nature, all men are equally bound by the laws of nature, or to speak more properly, the laws of the Creator.

~Samuel

For true patriots to be silent, is dangerous.

~Samuel

There is nothing so fretting and vexatious, nothing so justly terrible to tyrants, and their tools and abettors, as a free press.

~Samuel

Let me go to hell, that's all i ask.

~Samuel

I look at myself as an audience member. I still love movies, and I still go and sit in the back of the big dark room with everybody else, and I want the same thrill.

~Samuel

For the LORD will not cast away his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself.

~Samuel

What is important is using one's talent, intellect and energy in order to gain an appreciation and affection for people and place.

~Samuel

If you can't give me your word of honour, will you give me your promise?

~Samuel

The Glory of Israel will not lie or repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent.

~Samuel

Despair young and never look back.

~Samuel

The initial sketch is always an emotion, not a concept.

~Samuel

I want you to put more life into your dying.

~Samuel

Architects are by nature and pursuit, leaders and teachers.

~Samuel

I never object to a certain degree of disputatiousness in a young man from the age of seventeen to that of four or five and twenty, provided I find him always arguing on one side of the question.

~Samuel

The practice of architecture not only requires participation in the profession but it also requires civic engagement.

~Samuel

Architecture has to be greater than just architecture. It has to address social values, as well as technical and aesthetic values.

~Samuel
