~Sara Bareilles

Compare where you are to where you want to be, and you'll get nowhere

~Sara Bareilles

It'd be a shame to stop now that I've started to make really good mistakes

~Sara Bareilles

If you take your fear and mash it into something that's actually useful, then it doesn't feel like it wins.

~Sara Bareilles

The struggle is to stay present enough when you're taking your next step forward that you're really making your most honest choices.

~Sara Bareilles

I'm that person who owns all of the seasons on DVDs, including the Lifetime intimate portraits showcasing The Golden Girls. I am a massive fan. I think I'm Dorothy. She's my favorite.

~Sara Bareilles

I would never intentionally want to hurt someone's feelings.

~Sara Bareilles

I'm never gonna be somebody who's gonna fall down from the sky on a trapeze. That's not me. I really want to make sure that my focus stays on connecting with the audience.

~Sara Bareilles

So how do you do it, with just words and just music, capture the feeling that my Earth is somebody's ceiling?

~Sara Bareilles

When I look back, I was so mean to myself, and I was so uncomfortable in my own skin. I still feel that very loudly sometimes, but to try and really nurture that sense that you are your own friend.

~Sara Bareilles

It's very exciting to be a part of a team of collaborators in general.

~Sara Bareilles

I feel like I'm on the precipice - just seeing a better version of me coming out.

~Sara Bareilles

You can be the outcast or be the backlash of somebody's lack of love.
Or you can start speaking up.

~Sara Bareilles

I think it's one of those things about live performance - anything goes, anything can happen, and you have to just be ready and able to roll with the punches.

~Sara Bareilles

I certainly have dreams of being on a Broadway stage someday, if they'll have me. I think I want to stay really open to whatever possibilities present themselves.

~Sara Bareilles

Music is catharsis for me.
