Happiness is like a cloud, if you stare at it long enough, it evaporates.

~Sarah McLachlan

Once there was a darkness, a deep and endless night, you gave me everything you had and oh, you gave me light

~Sarah McLachlan

I'm so tired, but I can't sleep. Standing on the edge of something much too deep.

~Sarah McLachlan

I've heard myself referred to as a quiet superstar, and I don't quite know what that means.

~Sarah McLachlan

I think a lot of contemplation happens in bathtubs. It does for me. Nothing like a hot bath to ease the tension and think about what's going to happen next.

~Sarah McLachlan

We're constantly being told what other people think we are, and that's why it is so important to know yourself.

~Sarah McLachlan

I threw bitter tears at the ocean, but all that came back was the tide.

~Sarah McLachlan

I've learned to trust myself, to listen to truth, to not be afraid of it and to not try and hide it.

~Sarah McLachlan

There's beauty everywhere. There are amazing things happening everywhere, you just have to be able to open your eyes and witness it. Some days, that's harder than others.

~Sarah McLachlan

Trying to force creativity is never good.

~Sarah McLachlan

We try to create this interesting appearance to make ourselves feel better about ourselves.

~Sarah McLachlan
