I'm growing as an artist and expanding my range, and not pigeonholing myself by doing the same thing, over and over.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

I think I'm probably much better at the boots and pocket knife thing than I am at the high heels and martini thing.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

One thing that annoys me is when you see women in these terrible and incredible situations with perfectly glossed lips. You're not going to look good in the apocalypse.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

Every working mom I know is constantly walking some kind of a tightrope of guilt.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

An actor without an audience is rehearsing.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

The rite of passage of learning to build a fire that will burn all night with one match is not an insignificant one in my husband's family, and I grew up camping and backpacking. I love to camp.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

I love doing action scenes, there's that great thing when you sort of stop acting because if you're running, you're not acting like you're running, you are just actually running.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

I don't watch horror movies because they scare me!

~Sarah Wayne Callies

My husband's family is military. Preparation is just, from that family perspective, it's just a part of what makes sense to do. You buy insurance for your house; you have a go bag.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

Well, I do lie for a living. I'm an actor.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

You don't take a job in acting at all expecting 25 years in and a pension.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

Hospitals are great places, and you can learn from them, but you don't necessarily need to go in anytime you get the sniffles. And maybe you shouldn't treat pregnancy as a disease.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

Learning to shoot firearms to me is a little like driving stick - it seems like a decent skill to have.

~Sarah Wayne Callies

I am fascinated in religion and theology and what people believe.
