Running a start-up is like eating glass. You just start to like the taste of your own blood.

~Sean Parker

You have got to be willing to be poor as an entrepreneur.

~Sean Parker

It seems like the right thing to do is tackle problems other people aren't working on.

~Sean Parker

The transition strategies are more important than understanding what the outcome state will be.

~Sean Parker

I definitely wanted to earn my freedom. But the primary motivation wasn't making money, but making an impact.

~Sean Parker

Part of the challenge of being an entrepreneur, if you're going for a really huge opportunity, is trying to find problems that aren't quite on the radar yet and try to solve those

~Sean Parker

A million dollars isn't cool. You know what's cool? A billion dollars.

~Sean Parker

Look: There's good creepy and there's bad creepy. Today's creepy is tomorrow's necessity.

~Sean Parker

Spotify is returning a huge amount of money. We'll overtake iTunes in terms of what we bring to the record industry in under two years.

~Sean Parker

Ever since Napster I've dreamt of building a product similar to Spotify.

~Sean Parker

You just keep pushing yourself harder and harder to achieve more and more - I don't think it's ever quite as glamorous as it appears on the outside.

~Sean Parker

Little startups are ridiculously overfunded.

~Sean Parker

I can sort of do what I want. Maybe I have to work harder to prove myself in some new relationship because they've heard some wacky stories about me. But at least I can get the meeting.

~Sean Parker

You want people using your product because it's a part of your life, then they can't stop using it.

~Sean Parker

I focus on things that are the highest value and do them perfectly.

~Sean Parker

I suffer from the delusion that every product of my imagination is not only possible, but always on the cusp of becoming real.

~Sean Parker

I think the perception of wealth and power is that things just become easier and easier when in reality as you raise the stakes things become more stressful.

~Sean Parker

You can now be a master of your own destiny. I'm not sure why you would sign up with a record label.

~Sean Parker

There's a lot of artists whose contracts are written in such a way that they do not get paid for what's happening on streaming services.

~Sean Parker

There is no simple answer to what I think.

~Sean Parker

You actually don't want people thinking your product is cool, because then you're a fad.

~Sean Parker

I've never been much of a joiner.

~Sean Parker

Gray hats are the ones who think they're doing good, but they're not. You learn that when the FBI shows up on your doorstep.

~Sean Parker

Your biggest challenge as an entrepreneur is not concealing your idea from others or keeping your idea a secret, it is actually convincing people that you're not crazy and that you can pull this off.

~Sean Parker

If I were worried about my reputation, I wouldn't do anything with start-ups

~Sean Parker

I lived on couches for something like six months. I had no home. I was totally broke. I would stay at a friend's house for two weeks, then move because I didn't want to become this permanent mooch.

~Sean Parker

What comes after the revolution is inevitably bureaucracy. Whoever wins the revolution builds a bureaucracy

~Sean Parker

I had a desire to prove to myself that I was actually in control - that I wasn't a puppet.

~Sean Parker

Facebook is such a basic utility. It's something that is such a part of people's lives, I think it's hard to imagine it going away.

~Sean Parker

The leader of a company needs to have a decision tree in his head - if this happens, we go this way, but if it winds up like that, then we go this other way.

~Sean Parker

The market is ridiculously overcrowded with early stage investors. This results in a talent drain, where the best talent gets diffused and work for their own startups.

~Sean Parker

At the end of the day, money is just a proxy for votes. That is what makes politics so vulnerable to social media.

~Sean Parker

In truth the social media elements of the Obama campaign, while extremely innovative, did not produce a lot of results.

~Sean Parker

I think Facebook's biggest problem is the glut of information that Facebook's power users are overwhelmed with.

~Sean Parker

There's definitely some sort of dissent brewing between labels, publishing companies and artists. A lot of it has to do with older licensing schemes.

~Sean Parker

One of the difficulties in living the lifestyle I lead is that it is hard to get my friends in one place.

~Sean Parker

Solving specific problems is what drives me. I am not interested in having a career. I never have been.

~Sean Parker

I've been doing a hybrid of investing and entrepreneurship, which I think initially I wasn't set out to do. But I realized it fit my personality.
