I would like to work with anyone in the business who wants to give respect back to the Jamaican vibe.

~Sean Paul

Dancehall is just like hip-hop in that it doesn't always talk about bling; it talks about conscious issues.

~Sean Paul

Please remember we all come from the same one and we will all return to that one, so there is no reason for fighting.

~Sean Paul

Music is your own talent and is an important tool. Even if you don't want to be a role model, get ready to be in the public eye. Energy is there, you just have to use it.

~Sean Paul

I think kids should have a mentor and a role model, but that they shouldn't take one person's opinion to be what we call final assessment or judgment about how life is supposed to be.

~Sean Paul

I see dancehall reggae and hip-hop as fused together, When I was a kid, they were the two kinds of music that spoke to me and said 'Move!'

~Sean Paul

I got the right temperature for shelter you from the storm

~Sean Paul

I love the idea of the street vibe, having folks together, out in the street at midnight.

~Sean Paul

I know some very political people who rap, and they say very political things and they'll never get a deal.

~Sean Paul

It's about ladies, as usual. I'm telling the ladies I got the right temperature to keep them warm.

~Sean Paul

I'm a big hip-hop fan since being a kid. It was the first music that spoke to me and made me feel like, 'Yeah.'

~Sean Paul

Every time you think a negative thought, it's one step in the wrong direction, for me.

~Sean Paul

Sometimes you have to take a break from being a crazy kid. You can't be doing that all the time. Sometimes you just have to pay respect to your own simple-ness.

~Sean Paul

Better to have tried and failed than to have never tried at all. Whoever came up with that phrase I wanted his greasy head on a silver platt

~Sean Paul

I do feel I have a responsibility to the youths. For real.

~Sean Paul

With everything that's thrown at you, whether it be problems at home, problems at work - whatever - basically, if you remain positive, you can see your way out of that.

~Sean Paul

I'm still working on my career, still trying to learn from other artistes and develop my skills and my style.

~Sean Paul

My flow follows sometimes what's going on in the hip-hop industry even though I'm speaking Jamaican patois.

~Sean Paul

I remember being a bathtub singer. You know, the type that sings and everybody's like, Shut up.

~Sean Paul

The world still hasn't seen the best of Sean Paul.

~Sean Paul

Rent-a-tile' means when you go to a dance hall, some people take the middle of the dance floor and do their thing.

~Sean Paul

CAN'T TAN PON IT LONG.....NAW EAT NO YAM...NO STEAM FISH....NOR NO GREEN BANANA BUT DOWN IN JAMAICA WE GIVE IT TO YOU HOT LIKE A SAUNA.

~Sean Paul

I like music when it makes you feel.

~Sean Paul

Time Rolls On' is my most political piece so far. It's not on my album because people didn't support it.

~Sean Paul

I feel like I have things to say. And that's what I'm looking forward to.

~Sean Paul

I've been approached by many different people, but I don't really want to be known as a collaboration dude.

~Sean Paul

I don't want to do something unproductive with my time, so I decided to do something musical. So it felt good to say, 'Yeah, I'm producing.' It gave me a fresh vibe - inspiring in a different way.

~Sean Paul

I have carried my Jamaican Flag with pride around the world to share my culture and experience with others because I seek Balance which is what I believe life is all about.

~Sean Paul

Music tells you about the artist and what they were thinking about at the time, because the person has to think about it to sing it.
