I normally don't regret. I enjoy everything, even if it's bad or good.

~Sergei Polunin

Just let me live my life.

~Sergei Polunin

I wish I could have built without destroying things.

~Sergei Polunin

Artists are kids. I feel like I'm six years old.

~Sergei Polunin

If you open yourself as an artist, as a human being to this experience of growing, you grow anyway.

~Sergei Polunin

Not many people understand that, but if you open yourself to listening - you don't even have to exercise - you get better with time.

~Sergei Polunin

What made my mind go free is that I wanted to become an artist.

~Sergei Polunin

I feel like I'm getting stronger and stronger, and I don't practice as much as I used to.

~Sergei Polunin

As an artist, you have a choice. That gave me the freedom to do what I want to.

~Sergei Polunin

I wish I could, instead of destroying things like that, I wish I could build, build, build.

~Sergei Polunin

Now I want to become an artist, rather than one thing, like a dancer, or a movie star, or a choreographer.

~Sergei Polunin

The action heroes were very cool as a kid. You would compare yourself with them - Jean-Claude Van Damme and Arnold Schwarzenegger.

~Sergei Polunin

I feel like I'm a kid again.

~Sergei Polunin

I realized what an artist is and what it is to be an artist.

~Sergei Polunin

I could only destroy to build.

~Sergei Polunin

I was very, very inspired [by movies].

~Sergei Polunin

I wake up and I do class straight away, so that gives me a free day to do things.

~Sergei Polunin
