We're supposed to depend upon God for our protection and our provision and for our daily bread, not for our government.

~Sharron Angle

We need to diversify our economy, and the energy industry would be a great place to begin that diversification.

~Sharron Angle

And we know that once we have a majority that are dependent upon the government, we will lose our freedom; it says we go into bondage. That's the next stage.

~Sharron Angle

I'm pro responsible choice. You know, there is choice to abstain, choice to do contraception. There are all kinds of good choices

~Sharron Angle

We have put in so much entitlement into our government that we really have spoiled our citizenry and said, you don't want the jobs that are available.

~Sharron Angle

I think that, you know, when we start talking about the Tea Party, people want to marginalize that into some kind of organization or party, but it really isn't.

~Sharron Angle

I'm hoping that we're not getting to Second Amendment remedies. I hope the vote will be the cure for the Harry Reid problems.

~Sharron Angle

People ask me, "What are you going to do to develop jobs in your state?" Well, that's not my job as a US senator...

~Sharron Angle

I'll tell you the first thing we need to do is take Harry Reid out.

~Sharron Angle

They [Republicans] say, 'You're too conservative.' Was Thomas Jefferson too conservative? I'm tired of some people calling me wacky.

~Sharron Angle

The Federal Department of Education should be eliminated. The Department of Education is unconstitutional and should not be involved in education, at any level.

~Sharron Angle

As your US Senator, I'm not in the business of creating jobs.

~Sharron Angle

There is a plan and a purpose, a value to every life, no matter what its location, age, gender or disability.

~Sharron Angle

I've been called the first Asian legislator in our Nevada State Assembly.

~Sharron Angle

We need to phase Medicare and Social Security out in favor of something privatized.

~Sharron Angle

The Second Amendment is the right to keep and bear arms for our citizenry. This is for us. This is for us when our government becomes tyrannical.

~Sharron Angle

We need people to really stand for faith and trust, not hope and change.

~Sharron Angle

People have always said - those words, 'too conservative,' is fairly relative. I'm sure that they probably said that about Thomas Jefferson and George Washington and Benjamin Franklin.
