Whenever you want to marry someone, go have lunch with his ex-wife.

~Shelley Winters

I am the modern, intelligent, independent-type woman. In other words, a girl who can not get a man.

~Shelley Winters

We had a lot in common. I loved him and he loved him.

~Shelley Winters

I'm not overweight. I'm just nine inches too short.

~Shelley Winters

In those days, young stars, male and female, were all virgins until married, and if divorced, they returned magically to that condition.

~Shelley Winters

I don't want to smoke cigars or go to stag parties, wear jockey shorts or pick up the check.

~Shelley Winters

I hate to tell you how old I am, but I reached the age of consent 75,000 consents ago.

~Shelley Winters

I'm just a Ragetty Anne in a Barbie Doll World

~Shelley Winters

Life is a constant process of change, for better or worse.

~Shelley Winters

art is exposure. And until you've developed a degree of maturity to handle that knowledge, you are revealing what other people keep hidden.

~Shelley Winters

Acting is the developing of one's own personality, too, you know. That's what the public buys in a star, shall we say, the personality thing.

~Shelley Winters

Security is when I'm very much in love with somebody extraordinary who loves me back.

~Shelley Winters

I have bursts of being a lady, but it doesn't last long.

~Shelley Winters

Stardom can be very destructive - particularly if you believe in it.

~Shelley Winters

Good, bad, or indifferent - it doesn't matter, just work.

~Shelley Winters

sometimes in comedy you can make the audience feel poignancy stronger than you can with tears or anguish.

~Shelley Winters

Where do you go to get anorexia?

~Shelley Winters

You have a lot of friends who love you dearly and you don't know who they are.

~Shelley Winters

Now that I'm over sixty, I'm veering toward respectability.

~Shelley Winters

I was so cold I almost got married.

~Shelley Winters

To me, the theatre - I don't like to say it, but I'll say it - is a temple in a kind of way, where human beings go to be elevated.

~Shelley Winters

Acting is like painting pictures on bathroom tissues. Ten minutes later you throw them away and they are gone.

~Shelley Winters

The trouble with marrying an actor is they grab you in their arms, hold you close and tell you how wonderful they are.

~Shelley Winters

I did a picture in England one winter and it was so cold I almost got married.
