Write yourself a permission slip to be surprised by someone's potential. Who knows? One day that person could be you.

~Sherri Shepherd

Run towards that very thing that you fear, because there's amazing blessings on the other side.

~Sherri Shepherd

I was homeless for a little bit. I was on people's couches, but it was an amazing journey. I got to make people laugh all the way.

~Sherri Shepherd

I have so much hair; I have a separate wig closet in my house.

~Sherri Shepherd

My husband, Sal, and I put date nights on the calendar once a week. I know that doesn't sound romantic, but otherwise it won't get done.

~Sherri Shepherd

I've always been a strong believer that you were born with the hair you've got, but have the ability to get the hair you want.

~Sherri Shepherd

I know that for me I have to get out of the way and let God take control.

~Sherri Shepherd

My priority is my son and my husband, and I have a lot of spinning plates, so I try to make sure they're not one of them.

~Sherri Shepherd

As the oldest I was a daddy's girl and loved him with all my heart. My daddy had holes in his shoes so that he could pay for my photography classes, you know what I mean.

~Sherri Shepherd

I've taken salsa classes. I love dancing and I love to karaoke. So I bought a microphone with some tapes and my son and I karaoke. I know the entire 'Dora the Explorer' soundtrack.

~Sherri Shepherd

I've always had a quirky way of looking at things. It's my coping mechanism.

~Sherri Shepherd

I love the honesty of New Yorkers. When a New Yorker says 'let's do lunch,' they actually mean it. In L.A., when they say 'let's do lunch,' they're just trying to say good-bye.

~Sherri Shepherd

A lot of people say it's cathartic to cook, and I'm like, 'How is it cathartic washing all these dishes?'

~Sherri Shepherd

Anybody who knows about having a premature baby, it's horrific. He was part of a twin, and I lost his sister.

~Sherri Shepherd

Black people don't talk about diabetes that much. I never knew anything. I thought everyone had an uncle with a leg cut off!

~Sherri Shepherd

I burn a lot of stuff. My son, bless his heart, eats it anyway. But he makes a face!

~Sherri Shepherd

I was taught not to confront and interrupt people, but that's what I do every day on 'The View.'

~Sherri Shepherd

If you don't go towards the thing you fear, you won't be able to say you lived.

~Sherri Shepherd

I've always liked the fact that I could make people laugh at crazy stuff that has happened to me. If it makes you feel better at me falling down the stairs...then I'm going to do it.

~Sherri Shepherd

I believe God has called His people to be a light in darkness.

~Sherri Shepherd

I'm a mother. Mothers multi-task.

~Sherri Shepherd

I love 'The View,' so when you're living the dream, it's not work.

~Sherri Shepherd

I don't think anything predated Christians.

~Sherri Shepherd

I do a lot of stairs, a lot of planks, a lot of squats, a lot of treadmill, a lot of screaming - and I do it four times a week.

~Sherri Shepherd

I can't swim and I'm terrified of drowning, but I still love being by water - just not in it.

~Sherri Shepherd

My sisters have been baptized and my dad is a deacon at his church now. Sadly my mother passed away but what I can say is that the Jehovah Witnesses took very good care of her up until she died.

~Sherri Shepherd

For my first wedding, I cried all the way down the aisle. My fake eyelash came off. My nose was red. My eyes were swollen. I'm not one of those pretty criers.
