The administration needs to speak honestly with the American people. Exaggerating our progress in defeating the insurgency or in creating an Iraqi army paints a dangerous picture.

~Sherrod Brown

The average family earning minimum wage spends 141 percent of their income struggling to meet basic needs - food, shelter, clothing.

~Sherrod Brown

Ohio is one of only two states that have a minimum wage below the federal level of $5.15 an hour.

~Sherrod Brown

Anyone who's tried to pay a heating bill, fill a prescription, or simply buy groceries knows all too well that the current minimum wage does not cut the mustard.

~Sherrod Brown

Rooting for the Red Sox is like rooting for the drug companies.

~Sherrod Brown

Raising the minimum wage means raising the living wage - and that's good news for Ohio.

~Sherrod Brown

Year after year, President Bush has broken his campaign promises on college aid. And year after year, the Republican leadership in Congress has let him do it.

~Sherrod Brown

Workers organized and fought for worker rights and food safety, Social Security and Medicare - they fought to change government. And they won.

~Sherrod Brown

The president overstepped his authority when he asked the NSA to eavesdrop on Americans' international phone calls without obtaining a warrant.

~Sherrod Brown

As president, Clinton will continue to oppose TPP until it dies.

~Sherrod Brown

Big government conservatives are spending trillions and wasting billions. Republicans are no longer the party of fiscal conservancy, but the party of runaway spending and corruption.

~Sherrod Brown

It is unacceptable that someone can work full time - and work hard - and not be able to lift themselves out of poverty.

~Sherrod Brown

I've seen the same promises -- more jobs, higher wages, the jobs don't materialize ... the promises are remade.

~Sherrod Brown

Clinton is someone who understands trade, who understands we want more of it, but we want it under a different set of rules.

~Sherrod Brown

I think this group of people came together in a way that they haven't before in 2007. I'm very optimistic we can do something ... I want to get there, I want to support this.

~Sherrod Brown

I absolutely trust Hillary Clinton to stand strong on trade agreements.

~Sherrod Brown

Donald Trump talks a good game on trade, but he's never lived it. He's lined his pockets by outsourcing jobs to low-wage countries, and now he's talking about trade as if he actually means it?

~Sherrod Brown

Democrats are ready, willing, and able to provide regulatory relief for community banks and credit unions.
