

Signe Baumann Quotes

Reality, Art, Book, People, Views, Thinking, Ideas, Reading, Believe, Creative, Factories, Acting, Feelings, Eye, Mind, Training, Remember, Like You, Two, Delay

I would never jump under a subway car because that would delay all the people behind me. How inconsiderate!

~Signe Baumann

I have decided that I want animation to be taken seriously; that is the goal of my life. I believe that animation is a very important medium to tell stories, not just for kids but for adults.

~Signe Baumann

Once an audience feels that you trust them like you trust a friend, they do become your friends.

~Signe Baumann

The ability to understand and deliver comedy and tragedy is extremely rare in one composer.

~Signe Baumann

There can be no formula in arts. Formulas are for factory mass productions. There are no discoveries in already discovered formulas.

~Signe Baumann

I define art as a work created by a human that has a unique point of view and discovers something that was not there before.

~Signe Baumann

Even if you have a gift, it's nearly impossible to become a good actor in just a few weeks of training.

~Signe Baumann

I animated everything traditionally, on paper. I love how the texture of paper looks (it also matches textures of papier-mâché) and I love the tactile process.

~Signe Baumann

By using formula in filmmaking we are admitting that film is not art.

~Signe Baumann

What inspires me is when I see something and I say, "I can do that too!"

~Signe Baumann

I always knew that I wanted to be a writer. I think I was six or seven when I learned how to read, and I still remember it.

~Signe Baumann

Related Links:

- Reality Quotes
- Art Quotes
- Book Quotes
- People Quotes
- Views Quotes
- Thinking Quotes
- Ideas Quotes
- Reading Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- Creative Quotes
- Factories Quotes
- Acting Quotes
- Feelings Quotes
- Eye Quotes
- Mind Quotes
- Training Quotes
- Remember Quotes
- Like You Quotes
- Two Quotes
- Delay Quotes