The happy person often walks, unshaken, along the path that a thousand unhappy people insist is wrong.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Friendship is a tree to take shelter from the storm, to find shade from the blazing sun, to climb its bratches to get a better view, and to swing from when we're happy.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Some people say there are plenty of fish in the sea - until you find love - then there is only one.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Sometimes the most exciting journey you can make is through your own imagination.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Life is rather like acting lessons while you are on stage giving a public performance!

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

A word spoken in loving kindness is worth far more than any gift.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Don't rely on others to show you the way. Carry your own map.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

There is no greater thing two friends can do for each other than simply to be each other's friends.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

As soon as you recognize that you are able to control your thoughts, happiness will come within your reach.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

One cannot live a creative life without first letting go of the fear of being wrong.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Listen to what children have to say-their windows to the soul are unclouded.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Try to begin things you feel you can do. To begin is enough-there is a boldness in beginning. And in boldness lies genius and magic.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

There is no safer feeling than the comfort of sheltering from life's storms in the harbor of friendship.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Read something that YOU want to read, not something that you feel compelled to read.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Happiness is the best adventure on earth.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Try writing...a list, a letter, a journal, a novel, a declaration.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet

Say a thing well and it will be remembered-and so too will you.

~Sir David Baird, 1st Baronet
