Do, What you're going to do in longevity. Not just what happens tomorrow.

~Skitch Henderson

I also work with the regular orchestras in Munich, Germany and other similar orchestras.

~Skitch Henderson

Although we are being presented in Carnegie Hall, we have to furnish a budget for our guest stars, and for the music writing - which is a huge budget in any orchestra that plays popular music.

~Skitch Henderson

Then I went to radio with Sinatra and I watched that disappear.

~Skitch Henderson

I grew up on film scores and scores from films.

~Skitch Henderson

Well, I worked with lots of different artists, of course.

~Skitch Henderson

I've watched the demise of the Hollywood orchestra, the house orchestras of the big studios.

~Skitch Henderson

I started off as a studio pianist in Hollywood.

~Skitch Henderson

And then I went into television; and then television moved from the East Coast to Hollywood.

~Skitch Henderson

I listen to everything, I listen to all artists that come along.

~Skitch Henderson

I listen to everything.

~Skitch Henderson

You can tell by the applause: There's perfunctory applause, there's light applause, and then there's real applause. When it's right, applause sounds like vanilla ice cream with chocolate sauce.

~Skitch Henderson

Symphonic orchestras have almost become a glut in the market.

~Skitch Henderson

In a way, yes, because I was starting something fresh, and it was something totally independent.

~Skitch Henderson

I think my favorite experience is whatever I'm doing now.

~Skitch Henderson

I recorded with Sinatra, but the recording business is a very strange strata right now.

~Skitch Henderson

While there used to be one or two Pops orchestras, now there are all kinds of European orchestras that suddenly look upon this as a golden wand that can enable them to make money recording this music.
