Education is the key to success in life, and teachers make a lasting impact in the lives of their students.

~Solomon Ortiz

Teachers are our greatest public servants; they spend their lives educating our young people and shaping our Nation for tomorrow.

~Solomon Ortiz

As a father and grandfather, I have witnessed firsthand the joy of new life entering the world. I know the pain and apprehension that goes along with premature births and birth defects.

~Solomon Ortiz

Supporting the troops has got to mean more than bumper stickers on pickup trucks, my friends. We need to give them what they need.

~Solomon Ortiz

The Peace Corps is an outstanding organization that promotes peace through helping countless individuals who want to help build a better life for the community in which they serve.

~Solomon Ortiz

Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Peace Corps as it reached its 45th anniversary on March 1, 2006.

~Solomon Ortiz

Small businesses drive this economy and it is unacceptable that the President's budget proposal does not give them the tools they need to be successful.

~Solomon Ortiz

Education should be one of our top funding priorities; talking about it does not help the teachers and students who desperately need promises fulfilled.

~Solomon Ortiz

To date, nearly 100,000 Hispanics have died with AIDS. Since Hispanics are the fastest growing minority group in the United States, our challenge is even greater.

~Solomon Ortiz

Education is the silver bullet to improve this Nation's standing worldwide... and our teachers know that.

~Solomon Ortiz

Education makes children less dependent upon others and opens doors to better jobs and career possibilities.

~Solomon Ortiz

This nation's 23 million small businesses need a budget that reflects their value to the economy.
