Stand up for what you believe in even if you are standing alone

~Sophie Scholl

I shall cling to the rope God has thrown me in Jesus Christ, even if my numb hands can no longer feel it.

~Sophie Scholl

One must have a tough mind, and a soft heart.

~Sophie Scholl

Somebody, after all, had to make a start. What we wrote and said is also believed by many others. They just don't dare express themselves as we did.

~Sophie Scholl

Laws change. Conscience doesn't.

~Sophie Scholl

How can we expect fate to let a righteous cause prevail when there is hardly anyone who will give himself up undividedly to a righteous cause?

~Sophie Scholl

An end in terror is preferable to terror without end.

~Sophie Scholl

I am, now as before, of the opinion that I did the best that I could do for my nation. I therefore do not regret my conduct and will bear the consequences that result from my conduct.

~Sophie Scholl

God, you are my refuge into eternity

~Sophie Scholl

Who would have thought it possible that a tiny flower could preoccupy a person so completely that there simply wasn't room for any other thought.

~Sophie Scholl

The sun still shines.

~Sophie Scholl

I know that life is a doorway to eternity, and yet my heart so often gets lost in petty anxieties. It forgets the great way home that lies before it.

~Sophie Scholl

The more they lack material things, the more they indulge themselves when they can, but the less is their satisfaction with this world and they hunger for life after death(on Russian slave laborers.)

~Sophie Scholl

It is such a splendid sunny day and I have to go.
