There's gotta be more to life than chasing down every temporary high to satisfy me.

~Stacie Orrico

Every time we've gone somewhere, it's just been better and better and God's always blessed us for following.

~Stacie Orrico

I do not like onions. It's so funny because I am probably one of the least picky eaters ever. Pretty much any type of new food, I'll try it, I'll eat it. But onions, and pork. Pork and onions.

~Stacie Orrico

We should be recklessly abandoned to Jesus, and just turn it over to Him. Through the support I think the sacrifices will be made and we'll all be cool with it.

~Stacie Orrico

I think so many times we feel like we're lacking something in our lives and we try to fill it with the wrong things. Sometimes it's drugs, sometimes it's a relationship you shouldn't be in.

~Stacie Orrico

We all want heroes and we all want somebody to look up to.

~Stacie Orrico

I don't want to date someone who the whole world knows. Obviously, there are guys you look at and are like, 'Aww yeah, nice,' but I definitely have an anti-celebrity dating thing.

~Stacie Orrico

I don't want to shove the Bible down someone's throat with my music. That's not my goal.

~Stacie Orrico

I'm such an independent person, I always want to do everything myself.

~Stacie Orrico

Usually a family is led through the mom or the dad and their career and for the family to be led by my career, even though God has led it, could be a lot of pressure.

~Stacie Orrico

I've always gotten along with guys better.

~Stacie Orrico

So I started home schooling. I was a little freaked out about that, because I'm such a social person, involved in everything. It was awesome. I loved it and I loved being home.

~Stacie Orrico

I've lost some friends. A lot of the girls.
