Unless you give it all you've got, there isn't any sense in playing.

~Stan Musial

I love to play this game of baseball. I love putting on the uniform.

~Stan Musial

Back in my day, we didn't think about money as much. We enjoyed playing the game. We loved baseball. I didn't think about anybody else but the Cardinals.

~Stan Musial

I learned to hit with a broomstick and a ball of tape and I could always get that bat on the ball.

~Stan Musial

The first principle of contract negotiations is don't remind them of what you did in the past - tell them what you're going to do in the future.

~Stan Musial

Used to be bats had thick handles and a big barrel. Then they found it's not the size of the bat that gets home runs - it's the speed with which you can swing it.

~Stan Musial

The key to hitting for high average is to relax, concentrate, and don't hit the fly ball to center field.

~Stan Musial

Get eight hours of sleep regularly. Keep your weight down, run a mile a day.

~Stan Musial

Hitting is like swimming. Once you learn the stroke, you never forget it.

~Stan Musial

There was never a day when I was as good as Joe DiMaggio at his best. Joe was the best, the very best I ever saw.

~Stan Musial

The one unbreakable rule about hitting is this: if a batter hits well with his own particular stance and swing, think twice - or more - before suggesting a change.

~Stan Musial

There is no one correct way to bat, and so of course there is no one correct stance for it.

~Stan Musial

I never realized that batting a little ball around could cause so much commotion. I now know how (Charles) Lindbergh must have felt when he returned from St. Louis.

~Stan Musial

I started to crouch because that way I could guard the plate better, and I always wanted to hit .300 in the big leagues.

~Stan Musial

What made me sign with the Cardinals? Because they used salesmanship, the personal touch.

~Stan Musial

What I try to do is never to hurt anybody else and figure if I don't, then I'm not likely to get hurt myself.

~Stan Musial

Always wanted to be a Major League player. Loved baseball. Followed it. Loved to play. Plus, I could always hit.

~Stan Musial

I'm a musician. I play harmonica for relaxation. A good way to relax and entertain people. An excellent way to have fun.
