After all my years of doing instrumental music I still like just a simple instrumental song with a nice catchy melody and an opportunity to play a solo over a harmonic structure.

~Stanley Clarke

Bass players are always the intellectual kind, but nobody knows it.

~Stanley Clarke

It's very difficult sometimes having bands, you know, when all the members aren't on the same page.

~Stanley Clarke

You can actually go to school and college to learn how to play and get technical with the electric bass.

~Stanley Clarke

Ray Gomez is truly an unsung hero in American music.

~Stanley Clarke

You can disseminate your art, and it's all such easy access now. The upside to it is that more people are creating than ever before.

~Stanley Clarke

I think my favorite for music and spirit is Ray Gomez.

~Stanley Clarke

I felt like I was trailblazing. And that's what I did.

~Stanley Clarke

Scientology is probably one of the most misunderstood things, and it's sad that it's so misunderstood.

~Stanley Clarke

When you win a Grammy, it links a certain prestige and importance to you, you know? People want to talk to you.

~Stanley Clarke

I think I've done more recording in the past 10 years than most people, but it's all been directed toward film composing and soundtracks. Just the same, it's been great.

~Stanley Clarke

I really like sometimes to do action pictures; I get a really big kick out of doing those.

~Stanley Clarke

The point is, technology has empowered so many musicians, you know?

~Stanley Clarke

I called the great French violinist Jean-Luc Ponty and I said 'So, who's the new cat? Who's got the stuff? And he said Zach Brock.

~Stanley Clarke

There are few words in the music business or in art that I'll say people or some writers are overgenerous with words like 'legend' or 'genius', 'he's a pioneer' and all of that.

~Stanley Clarke

I don't think a guy that really has no understanding about people, or has no interest in understanding people would make a good film composer.
