If you start embracing life's storms instead of hiding away from them, you'll stop fearing them all together; it is this way one becomes immovable.

~Stefanie Schneider

It is most often not our strengths, our courage or our successes that bring two human hearts together, but it is often our shared vulnerability, our fears and our common failures that make us one.

~Stefanie Schneider

Love is a funny thing, isn't it? The presence of it can bring you to save a foe, the absence of it can make you hurt your own flesh.

~Stefanie Schneider

It amazes me, how many words there are spoken, how many thoughts...yet each speaks freshly to me each time as if they were never once spoken before.

~Stefanie Schneider

I feel really good when I haven't felt good for a long time and then suddenly I feel okay again. Nothing feels better than this.

~Stefanie Schneider

What is truth? Truth is what causes you to breathe again when lies have told you, you are already dead.

~Stefanie Schneider

Yes, I do feel the world revolves around me. After all, I am the main character of my own life.

~Stefanie Schneider

The devil told my mind that my thoughts held no power; and this seemed true until my thoughts I began to speak.

~Stefanie Schneider

When I was younger I feared the dark, wondering what evil was watching me. Now it's different, for now it's a game of sneaking the light back on and laughing at how quickly the evil fleas.

~Stefanie Schneider

When I was young I would ask everybody what life was about. Now it's clear to me that the image of each existence shows its own answer to that question.
