I'm a Gatorade athlete because dance is being recognized as a sport now. It always should have been, but now it is. It's very exciting.

~Stephen Boss

The life of a dancer is not for everyone. You really have to have some thick skin. You really have to know what you're going into and how competitive the field is.

~Stephen Boss

Dance removes you from this construct of the world that you have, and it's a conversation that you're having with people. That's how dance grew, as an art form.

~Stephen Boss

Dancing is so physical and so athletic. I think it rings to the boy that is in my soul because you get to run and jump and climb and act as aggressively as you'd like.

~Stephen Boss

Dance is an art, so day by day, it's growing and there are new things that can be done.

~Stephen Boss

People can stand around and share movement with each other, whether it's professional or not. That's how it grows. That's what dance does. It's its own language.

~Stephen Boss

With dance, it's about education. I'm teaching a lot. I teach the foundations of hip-hop.

~Stephen Boss

I feel like I've always been in love with dance. When I was little kid I would always be the one who would be like, okay let's make up some dance routines.

~Stephen Boss

Being a fan of dance and a dancer, I love my classic dance movies.

~Stephen Boss

At some point in time, in the future, people are going to refer to the Step Up films as the films they grew up on. Hopefully, that inspires them to get in dance films that are being made.

~Stephen Boss

As far as the performance aspect, I'm going to be an actor. I still love performing, but I'm moving into more acting.
