The young patriots now returning from war in Iraq and Afghanistan and other deployments worldwide are joining the ranks of veterans to whom America owes an immense debt of gratitude.

~Steve Buyer

Twenty-five million veterans are living among us today. These men and women selflessly set aside their civilian lives to put on the uniform and serve us.

~Steve Buyer

America's veterans embody the ideals upon which America was founded more than 229 years ago.

~Steve Buyer

The nation's obligation to her defenders is as old as that defense itself.

~Steve Buyer

In fact, it is often times a detriment for the Government to preemptively legislate on an issue before we can either define it or grasp its impact.

~Steve Buyer

I expect VA's inspector general and the FBI to work closely together so that we can identify and eliminate the flaws that allowed this leak and prosecute any criminal acts.

~Steve Buyer

Since the Revolution, eight generations of America's veterans have established an unbroken commitment to freedom.

~Steve Buyer

The men and women of today's VA are dedicated to caring for today's veterans and stand ready to provide for our servicemembers who now defend our freedoms and our way of life.

~Steve Buyer

From a generation that came of age during the Great Depression, millions of our country's best and bravest took up arms in a worldwide struggle against tyranny.

~Steve Buyer

Each family of the United States military now attends to their loved ones funeral with a wrenching worry that it will be met possibly with a protest or a demonstration.

~Steve Buyer

Our nation has kept faith with its veterans. Funding for veterans healthcare and benefits is strong, and has increased more than 75 percent in the last decade.

~Steve Buyer

Men and women whose early youth was shaped in the ordeal of the Great Depression showed the values formed in that crucible when tyranny threatened a world.

~Steve Buyer

More than 48 million men and women have served America well and faithfully in military uniform.

~Steve Buyer

We, the people of the United States, we are a great Nation with a great vision.
