I'm not really a very social person. It exhausts me when I'm out.

~Steve Grand

I care about making music and I care about creating experiences for my fans with my music and my videos and my performances.

~Steve Grand

Matter flows from place to place, and momentarily comes together to be you.

~Steve Grand

I want to make honest music and tell honest stories that hopefully reflect the thoughts and feelings other people have.

~Steve Grand

What puts my mind at rest is knowing I'm a person of integrity. I really do stand for what I say I stand for. I'm real!

~Steve Grand

I did a handful of photo shoots and I never made any money for it just because I was trying to build a portfolio. I decided that that's not what I wanted to do.

~Steve Grand

When people have expectations, you're going to make a lot of them upset - when in fact I'm not trying to represent anybody but myself.

~Steve Grand

Definitely 99% of the hate I get is from other gay people.

~Steve Grand

Everyone has to learn to work with people - it's part of being an adult, too.

~Steve Grand

I'd rather have a lot of little donations than a couple big ones. That shows that people care and are giving what they can.

~Steve Grand

The songs are always drawn from personal experience; I'm putting myself into my music. I usually am playing myself. It's art, art that represents my life.

~Steve Grand

I'm a sensitive guy, and I'm already one of my harshest critics, so if other people are hard on me, it just amplifies how hard I already am on myself.

~Steve Grand

I'm better at accepting the people who don't have nice things to say about me anonymously, but until you've experienced it, you don't understand how much it can affect you and mess with your mind.

~Steve Grand

I'm not always open to creative input when I have my heart set on a creative idea or a message I want to convey.

~Steve Grand

It's really important for me to live purposefully, and I feel that way putting music out in the world and having people connect with it. That means everything to me.

~Steve Grand

I would like people to see me as someone who is genuine and sincere and cares about the people who support me, and who doesn't forget how lucky I am to be doing what I love.

~Steve Grand

Control is as much an effect as a cause, and the idea that control is something you exert is a real handicap to progress

~Steve Grand

The poetry of life must not be replaced with matter-of-fact prose.
