Mining is like a search-and-destroy mission.

~Stewart Udall

We have, I fear, confused power with greatness.

~Stewart Udall

Plans to protect air and water, wilderness and wildlife are in fact plans to protect man.

~Stewart Udall

Over the long haul of life on the planet, it is the ecologists, and not the bookkeepers of business, who are the ultimate accountants.

~Stewart Udall

Cherish sunsets, wild creatures, and wild places. Have a love affair with the wonder and beauty of the earth!

~Stewart Udall

The National Park Service today exemplifies one of the highest traditions of public service.

~Stewart Udall

A land ethic for tomorrow should...stress the oneness of our resources and the live-and-help-live logic of the great chain of life.

~Stewart Udall

Wilderness, like the national park system, was an American idea.

~Stewart Udall

It induced us to conduct government according to lies. It distorted justice. It undermined American morality.

~Stewart Udall

If you want inner peace, find it in solitude, not speed, and if you would find yourself, look to the land from which you came and to which you go.

~Stewart Udall

Gross National Product is our Holy Grail.

~Stewart Udall

It gives me satisfaction to help people.

~Stewart Udall

The real story of the settlement of the West was work, not conquest

~Stewart Udall

Nuclear energy people perceive the greenhouse effect as a fresh wind blowing at their back.

~Stewart Udall

It is obvious that the best qualities in man must atrophy in a standing-room-only environment.

~Stewart Udall

The most common trait of all primitive peoples is a reverence for the life-giving earth.

~Stewart Udall

Where nature is concerned, familiarity breeds love and knowledge, not contempt.

~Stewart Udall

I'm trying to encourage my children's generation and the other ones coming to return to basic American principles.

~Stewart Udall

Society as we know it is almost a conspiracy against human health.

One of the main forces working to counteract that is the trailsman.

~Stewart Udall

One of the best things that came out of the Carter administration was the energy policy. The best things in it were renewable energy.

~Stewart Udall

Utah today remains a battleground for land-use policies.

~Stewart Udall

As the master politician navigates the ship of state, he both creates and responds to public opinion. Adept at tacking with the wind, he also succeeds, at times, in generating breezes of his own.

~Stewart Udall

Nature will take precedence over the needs of the modern man.

~Stewart Udall

I dont remember a big fight between the Republicans and Democrats in the Nixon administration or President Gerald Ford and so on.

~Stewart Udall

I think the Colorado Plateau is the most scenic area in the world - let's begin with that. Not just the United States.

~Stewart Udall

I plowed fields with horses and worked as a hired hand in high school for 50 cents a day.

~Stewart Udall

In a region with a growing population, if you're doing nothing, you're losing ground.

~Stewart Udall

We're all pretty individualistic.

~Stewart Udall

Nixon was a good president on the environment. Gerald Ford was good.

~Stewart Udall

So many people of my generation who served in the government were prisoners of the Cold War culture, still are.

~Stewart Udall

Washington's a cesspool of money.
