I want to get old gracefully. I want to have good posture, I want to be healthy and be an example to my children.

~Sting

If you play music with passion and love and honesty, then it will nourish your soul, heal your wounds and make your life worth living. Music is its own reward.

~Sting

Yoga is almost like music in a way; there's no end to it.

~Sting

A lot of people approach risk as if it's the enemy when it's really fortune's accomplice.

~Sting

When the world is running down, you make the best of what's still around.

~Sting

You have to be yourself. Stay true to who and what you are. And if people still like you, that's great! If they don't, that's their problem.

~Sting

I can't really change my life to accommodate people who are jealous. I don't see why I should.

~Sting

I don't think happiness is necessarily the reason we're here. I think we're here to learn and evolve, and the pursuit of knowledge is what alleviates the pain of being human.

~Sting

I think love has something to do with allowing a person you claim to love to enter a larger arena than the one you create for them.

~Sting

Let your soul be your pilot.

~Sting

Don't judge me, you could be me in another life.

~Sting

~Sting

There's no religion but sex and music.

~Sting

Turn the clock to zero, honey, we're starting up a brand new day.

~Sting

I don't need to manufacture trauma in my life to be creative. I have a big enough reservoir of sadness or emotional trauma to last me.

~Sting

At night a candle's brighter than the sun

~Sting

I see songs not as a commodity used up when the album goes off the charts, which is often the case with pop songs. I see them as a body of work. Life should be breathed into them.

~Sting

The deeper you get into Yoga you realize it is a spiritual practice. It's a journey I'm making. I'm heading that way.

~Sting

The Super Bowl is Americana at its most kitsch and fun.

~Sting

I've only paid lip service to a spiritual life.

~Sting

If manners maketh the man as someone said, then he's the hero of the day.

~Sting

An uncle of mine emigrated to Canada and couldn't take his guitar with him. When I found it in the attic, I'd found a friend for life.

~Sting

I'm not much of a family man. I'm just not that into it. I love kids, I adore them, but I don't want to live my life for them.

~Sting

Without the voice of reason, every faith is its own curse.

~Sting

I write the music, produce it and the band plays within the parameters that I set.

~Sting

Money's only important when you don't have any.
