Instead of me keeping my art a personal thing, we can use it to save lives, change lives and inspire.

~Swizz Beatz

I started off as a graffiti artist in the South Bronx. My tag name was 'Loco' because I would go crazy and tag anywhere I wanted, in the weirdest places.

~Swizz Beatz

My art side is free and there are no strings attached.

~Swizz Beatz

Set your business plan to win; raise the bar or you're not going to be prepared. You need to think that what you're doing will make you $100 million.

~Swizz Beatz

You have to invest in yourself and your surroundings.

~Swizz Beatz

Music is the universal language.

~Swizz Beatz

I don't even know how to sell a piece of artwork of mine because it's so personal.

~Swizz Beatz

There's no wrong way of doing art. It's an expression of the individual.

~Swizz Beatz

It's just these moments in hip-hop where you feel invincible. It felt good hearing the music on the radio and in cars, skating rinks, and clubs.

~Swizz Beatz

I want to help promote Korean music around the world.

~Swizz Beatz

My worst haircuts have been the ones where I've done my own.

~Swizz Beatz

I didn't go to prom - I DJ'd all my proms.

~Swizz Beatz

When I was a barber, me being extreme was how I got popular: you name it, I was drawing it on someone's head.

~Swizz Beatz

I think that a lot of people just don't understand creativity.

~Swizz Beatz

I'm the last person that wants to give away music for free.

~Swizz Beatz

My idea to bridge the world together with music starting in Asia and going to the West is something that is new, untapped and leading to the future of bringing the worlds together.

~Swizz Beatz

I think K-Pop is a type of expression.

~Swizz Beatz

You know, I never did music for money. I did music to hear myself in the club, and to hear my creation on the radio.
