In the New York Times, you're going to get completely different information than you would in the USA Today.

~Tabitha Soren

At MTV, it's very nice sometimes to be able to be very specific. Specificity really makes a news story interesting because you can color it in that personality.

~Tabitha Soren

Gossip is easy, politics is hard.

~Tabitha Soren

Knowing policy does help make the gossip more understandable.

~Tabitha Soren

You have a specific, defined audience-at MTV, they assume the audience to the news is 15 to 30 years old and they do a lot of research about the things they're interested in.

~Tabitha Soren

The constant variety is the most interesting part of my job.

~Tabitha Soren

Caring about policy is important - people in Washington forget.

~Tabitha Soren

At MTV, although the audience is smaller, I found it more interesting to deliver news to a specific group of people, because my story then did not have to try to be all things to all people.

~Tabitha Soren

I'm surprised and disappointed in American culture.

~Tabitha Soren

I worked at NBC and MTV for two years, and it was very interesting to see the comparisons of audiences and the way that I would have to present a story to the two different places.

~Tabitha Soren

At NBC I wasn't really sure if the grandparents were going to get my sense of humor on a particular topic.

~Tabitha Soren

When I was a freelancer, I thought this journalism thing was a racket, and now that I'm where I am now, I know it's a racket.

~Tabitha Soren

Some of those stories in local newspapers are just as dull and boring as the stories that I get from on-line services, which are basically sort of straight news.

~Tabitha Soren

It's nice to know about something as soon as it happens, and obviously a newspaper can't provide that.

~Tabitha Soren

I've been told I'm a player, but people still don't always return my calls.

~Tabitha Soren

If the breaking news story had to do with hard news, politics specifically, I had a lot to do with it. If it had to do with music, Kurt Loder was more involved.

~Tabitha Soren

Online, you have things like Slate Magazine, which has a lot of commentary and analysis of stories, so it gives you a fuller picture. I would compare that to a news magazine or the New Republic.
