The U.S. routinely ranks lower than other countries in health outcomes such as infant mortality.

~Tammy Baldwin

All my life, the naysayers have told me that I can't win because I'm a progressive... because I'm a woman... even because I'm a lesbian.

~Tammy Baldwin

In my grandfather's lab, scientists did independent research, and peers reviewed and commented on its merits. Politics, he taught me, had no place in the scientific process.

~Tammy Baldwin

I find it greatly disturbing that the Bush administration has used political and religious ideologies to influence national policy on science and medicine.

~Tammy Baldwin

I had a serious childhood illness - sort of like spinal meningitis - that led to a three-month hospitalization. Afterward, I couldn't be insured because of a pre-existing condition.

~Tammy Baldwin

There will not be a magic day when we wake up and it's now okay to express ourselves publicly. We make that day by doing things publicly until it's simply the way things are.

~Tammy Baldwin

I think that that integrity is something that is important to voters.

~Tammy Baldwin

It is hard to look the other way when a dictator is being so cruel and violent with his own people.

~Tammy Baldwin

Politicians in Washington and Madison aren't hearing, aren't listening to their constituents and prioritizing getting people back to work and growing our economy.

~Tammy Baldwin

Our constitutional liberties shall not be sacrificed in our search for greater security, for that is what our enemies and all enemies of freedom and democracy hope to achieve.

~Tammy Baldwin

From day one, I have always been open about my sexual orientation.

~Tammy Baldwin

When I first ran for Congress in 1998, people counted me out.

~Tammy Baldwin

Americans are not saving enough for retirement.
