

Taraka Larson

Quotes

Sound, Sports, Way, World, Growing Up, Space, Spiritual, People, Video, Stuff, Temples, Yang, Magic, Home, Religious, Texas, New York, Our Generation, Differences, Practice

I know people within the Hare Krishna community look at pop music as secular, different, and something separate from spiritual music but for me, there's no difference.

~Taraka Larson

Hopefully, with some years of practice and just getting to that state, I'll try extreme sports again.

~Taraka Larson

The way that music is approached in the temple is very call and response; it breaks down that barrier between performer and audience.

~Taraka Larson

I feel like with our shows it always feels weird to be performers on stage and not engaging in audience interaction in some way - that exchange of energy is very much a part of the sound.

~Taraka Larson

I really feel like there's a void in this world for music that acknowledges that spiritual aspect of these activities as well as just the sheer physicality of them.

~Taraka Larson

One of the reasons why I chose to live in New York was that there is this sense of your environment constantly changing.

~Taraka Larson

I listen to pop music and it sounds like mantra to me, there's this power to it. There's also something to be said about how it reaches people on a mass level, there's some magic to that.

~Taraka Larson

Related Links:

- Sound Quotes
- Sports Quotes
- Way Quotes
- World Quotes
- Growing Up Quotes
- Space Quotes
- Spiritual Quotes
- People Quotes
- Video Quotes
- Stuff Quotes
- Temples Quotes
- Yang Quotes
- Magic Quotes
- Home Quotes
- Religious Quotes
- Texas Quotes
- New York Quotes
- Our Generation Quotes
- Differences Quotes
- Practice Quotes