My penalty for rocking the boat was being traded.

~Ted Lindsay

My first season Butch Bouchard accidentally sent me to the hospital for three days with a concussion, but I never backed away from Butch or anyone else after I came back.

~Ted Lindsay

It's not just the child that has autism. It's the whole family that has autism. It's not a one person thing.

~Ted Lindsay

By 1946, I knew Detroit was the best hockey city in the Original Six.

~Ted Lindsay

What you had at the time was a dictatorship with the team owners.

~Ted Lindsay

When it was my turn, I just skated out and heard this huge cheer. It was very touching considering the bad circumstances under which I had left the team and that I had been away for four years.

~Ted Lindsay

They thought we were going to hurt the game, but we just wanted to help ourselves, because the players needed to get together to protect their interests.

~Ted Lindsay

Looking back, I've never had one regret.

~Ted Lindsay

I had the idea that I should beat up every player I tangled with and nothing ever convinced me it wasn't a good idea.

~Ted Lindsay

I watch a lot of hockey. There are some good hockey players and there are some awfully stupid hockey players.

~Ted Lindsay

I always believed if you take care of your body it will take care of you

~Ted Lindsay

Some nights, I was so good that I could have become an egotist.

~Ted Lindsay

Starting that union was something I believed in very strongly.

~Ted Lindsay

I love people and I love to be around people.

~Ted Lindsay

At 39, I was back in a Red Wings uniform and loving it.

~Ted Lindsay

Together, we'll beat autism.

~Ted Lindsay

I liked playing in Chicago, and I gave them everything I had, but I knew in my heart I was a Red Wing.
