The pen is the lever that moves the world.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

A mother is a bank where I deposit all my worries and hurts

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

I like the Bible folded between lids of cloth, or calfskin, or morocco, but I like it better when, in the shape of a man, it goes out into the world-a Bible illustrated.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

I wish that I could marshall all the young to an appreciation of the fact that you have an earnest work in life and your amusements and recreations are only to help you along in that work.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

God puts his ear so closely down to your lips that he can hear your faintest whisper.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

One good, hearty laugh is a bombshell exploding in the right place, while spleen and discontent are a gun that kicks over the man who shoots it off.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

What may we expect of people who work all day and dance all night? After a while they will be thrown on society nervous, exhausted imbeciles.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

In the lottery of life there are more prizes drawn than blanks, and to one misfortune there are fifty advantages. Despondency is the most unprofitable feeling a man can indulge in.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

Logic has its use and metaphysics has its use, but neither of them is of much help in the making of a creed.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

~Thomas De Witt Talmage

By the 1990s, longevity will be so improved that 150 years will be no unusual age to reach.
