The concept that an artist would be revered by popular culture is an immediate dismissal of his relevance as an artist.

~Thomas Kinkade

I think the art world... is a very small pond, and it's a very inbred pond. They rely on information from an elect elite sect of galleries, primarily in New York.

~Thomas Kinkade

Balance, peace, and joy are the fruit of a successful life. It starts with recognizing your talents and finding ways to serve others by using them.

~Thomas Kinkade

Beauty is found in anything that delights the senses, nourishes the soul, fires the imagination.

~Thomas Kinkade

The power of prayer is like turning on a light as it illuminates God's purpose for our lives. There is no greater connection to knowing His will other than the word.

~Thomas Kinkade

The flow of blessings in our life is directly related to our passing blessings along to someone else.

~Thomas Kinkade

When we learn to say a deep, passionate yes to the things that really matter, then peace begins to settle onto our lives like golden sunlight sifting to a forest floor.

~Thomas Kinkade

I believe a radiant, light-filled tomorrow should be normal to the experience of living.

~Thomas Kinkade

Every conversation, every cuddle, every kiss and caress, even every disagreement, adds another brushstroke to the picture of home you paint with the days and hours of your life.

~Thomas Kinkade

Balance, peace, and joy are the fruit of a successful life.

~Thomas Kinkade

Romance makes a radiant sunrise out of every moment.

~Thomas Kinkade

The more you give yourself to others, the more joy and peace will flow into your own life.

~Thomas Kinkade

Everyone can identify with a fragrant garden, with beauty of sunset, with the quiet of nature, with a warm and cozy cottage.

~Thomas Kinkade

I try to create paintings that are a window for the imagination. If people look at my work and are reminded of the way things once were, or perhaps, the way they could be, then I've done my job.

~Thomas Kinkade

Cherish the people who make up your home, and you'll notice the hearth fires burn brighter than ever before.

~Thomas Kinkade

Our most important legacy will be the contributions we make to the lives of other human beings.

~Thomas Kinkade

I am really the most controversial artist in the world.

~Thomas Kinkade

Somewhere out there is a unique place for you to help others - a unique life role for you to fill that only you can fill.

~Thomas Kinkade

I share something in common with Norman Rockwell and, for that matter, with Walt Disney, in that I really like to make people happy.

~Thomas Kinkade

Beautiful objects, ideas, even beautiful people all share the power to lift the spirits and motivate creativity while at the same time soothing the soul.

~Thomas Kinkade

The most important key to a more romantic life: you have to be willing to pay attention

~Thomas Kinkade

My paintings always feature trails that dissolve into mysterious areas, patches of light that lead the eye around corners, pathways, open gates, etc.

~Thomas Kinkade

Surround yourself with the kinds of input that are uplifting, that expand your mind and settle your spirit.

~Thomas Kinkade

I try to embrace people with love, unconditional love, like Christ did.

~Thomas Kinkade

My life shines with God's radiant blessings when my heart is the color of joy

~Thomas Kinkade

The act of contributing to the lives of others is its own reward. A servant's heart is a greater motivator than financial gain.

~Thomas Kinkade

I'm a warrior for light.

~Thomas Kinkade

There's been million-seller books and million-seller CDs. But there hasn't been, until now, million-seller art.

~Thomas Kinkade

It's when I let myself get little that I tumble head over heels into joy.

~Thomas Kinkade

It is easy to have a lot of paintings or projects hanging around that are 'almost done.

~Thomas Kinkade
