Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

~Thomas Moore

We need people in our lives with whom we can be as open as possible. To have real conversations with people may seem like such a simple, obvious suggestion, but it involves courage and risk.

~Thomas Moore

A friendship that like love is warm; A love like friendship, steady.

~Thomas Moore

The ordinary acts we practice every day at home are of more importance to the soul than their simplicity might suggest.

~Thomas Moore

The heart that has truly loved never forgets, But as truly loves on to the close.

~Thomas Moore

You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will, But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

~Thomas Moore

Finding the right work is like discovering your own soul in the world.

~Thomas Moore

It is precisely because we resist the darkness in ourselves that we miss the depths of the loveliness, beauty, brilliance, creativity, and joy that lie at our core.

~Thomas Moore

Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish; Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.

~Thomas Moore

It may help us, in those times of trouble, to remember that love is not only about relationship, it is also an affair of the soul.

~Thomas Moore

Go where we may, rest where we will, Eternal London haunts us still.

~Thomas Moore

And the heart that is soonest awake to the flowers is always the first to be touch'd by the thorns.

~Thomas Moore

It is only through mystery and madness that the soul is revealed.

~Thomas Moore

Love doesn't demand perfection, but it does ask you to give yourself with less reserve than you'd prefer.

~Thomas Moore

Humility, that low, sweet root, from which all heavenly virtues shoot.

~Thomas Moore

T'is the last rose of summer, Left blooming alone.

~Thomas Moore

Romantic love is an illusion. Most of us discover this truth at the end of a love affair or else when the sweet emotions of love lead us into marriage and then turn down their flames.

~Thomas Moore

Fond memory brings the light of other days around me.

~Thomas Moore

Usually, the main problem with life conundrums is that we don't bring to them enough imagination

~Thomas Moore

A soulmate is someone to whom we feel profoundly connected, as though the communicating and communing that take place between us were not the product of intentional efforts, but rather a divine grace.

~Thomas Moore

There is no way to re-enchant our lives in a disenchanted culture except by becoming renegades from that culture and planting the seeds for a new one.

~Thomas Moore

Silence is not an absence of sound but rather a shifting of attention toward sounds that speak to the soul.

~Thomas Moore

It is only to the happy that tears are a luxury.

~Thomas Moore

I have plenty of machinery around me; what I really need is a more enchanting world in which to live and work.

~Thomas Moore

Socrates and Jesus, two teachers of virtue and love, were executed because of the unsettling, threatening power of their souls, which was revealed in their personal lives and in their words.

~Thomas Moore

All that's bright must fade, The brightest still the fleetest; All that's sweet was made But to be lost when sweetest.

~Thomas Moore

Bastard Freedom waves Her fustian flag in mockery over slaves.

~Thomas Moore

A pretty wife is something for the fastidious vanity of a roue to retire upon.

~Thomas Moore

The key to seeing the world's soul, and in the process wakening our own, is to get over the confusion by which we think that fact is real and imagination is illusion.

~Thomas Moore

The soul doesn't distinguish between good and bad as much as between what is nutritious and what isn't. Finding the right work is like discovering your own soul in the world.

~Thomas Moore

The devil...the prowde spirite...cannot endure to be mocked.

~Thomas Moore

Disguise our bondage as we will, 'Tis woman, woman, rules us still.

~Thomas Moore

The problem in narcissism is not the high ideals and ambitions, it's the difficulty one encounters when trying to give them body.

~Thomas Moore

This wretched brain gave way, and I became a wreck at random driven, without one glimpse of reason or heaven.

~Thomas Moore

A genuine odyssey is not about piling up experiences. It is a deeply felt, risky, unpredictable tour of the soul.

~Thomas Moore

Rich and rare were the gems she wore, And a bright gold ring on her hand she bore.

~Thomas Moore

Though an angel should write, still 'tis devils must print.

~Thomas Moore

Come o'er the sea, Maiden with me, Mine through the sunshine, storms and snows; Seasons may roll, But the true soul Burns the same,
where'er it goes.

~Thomas Moore

Like ships that have gone down at sea, when heaven was all tranquillity.

~Thomas Moore

This heart, my own dear mother, bends, With love's true instinct, back to thee!

~Thomas Moore

Peace to each manly soul that sleepeth; Rest to each faithful eye that weepeth.

~Thomas Moore

Sweet flowers alone can say what passion fears revealing.

~Thomas Moore

We let a river shower its banks with a spirit that invades the people living there, and we protect that river, knowing that without its blessings
the people have no source of soul.

~Thomas Moore

Came but for friendship, and took away love.

~Thomas Moore

It is quite cruel that a poet cannot wander through his regions of enchantment without having a critic, forever, like the old man of the sea, upon his back.

~Thomas Moore

A philosopher being asked what was the first thing necessary to win the love of a woman, answered, Opportunity!

~Thomas Moore

I thought that the light-house looked lovely as hope, That star on life's tremulous ocean.

~Thomas Moore

The past, the future: - two eternities!

~Thomas Moore

Every season hath its pleasure; Spring may boast her flowery prime,
Yet the vineyard's ruby treasures Brighten Autumn's sob'rer time.

~Thomas Moore

A few moments of silence may be all the meditation we need at times.
Our homes could have a little space for withdrawal and quiet, and even a small garden could offer some distance from noise.

~Thomas Moore

Though the last glimpse of Erin with sorrow I see, Yet wherever thou art shall seem Erin to me; In exile thy bosom shall still be my home, And thine eyes make my climate wherever we roam.

~Thomas Moore

Most, if not all, problems brought to therapists are issues of love. It makes sense that the cure is also love.

~Thomas Moore

To love you was pleasant enough. And, oh! 'tis delicious to hate you!

~Thomas Moore

When Time who steals our years away Shall steal our pleasures too,
The mem'ry of the past will stay, And half our joys renew.
