Civil disobedience is an act of love.

~Tim DeChristopher

What one person can do is to plant the seeds of love and outrage in the hearts of a movement. And if those hearts are fertile ground, those seeds of love and outrage will grow into a revolution.

~Tim DeChristopher

Our security doesn't come from turning away from the hard stuff; it comes from the knowledge that we can handle it.

~Tim DeChristopher

Until our leaders take seriously their responsibility to pass on a healthy and just world to the next generation, I will continue this fight.

~Tim DeChristopher

Respond to stressful times by turning towards each other, rather than away from each other.

~Tim DeChristopher

We need actions that are really coming from people's souls.

~Tim DeChristopher

The reality is not that I lack respect for the law; it's that I have greater respect for justice.

~Tim DeChristopher

It's really hard to change the world when your first priority is making sure that the little world around yourself doesn't change.

~Tim DeChristopher

Alienation is perhaps the most effective tool of control in America, and every reminder of our real connectedness weakens that tool.

~Tim DeChristopher

I don't think a worship of nature is necessary to mount a really strong defense of the environment.

~Tim DeChristopher

I would never go to jail to protect animals or plants or wilderness. For me, it's about the people.

~Tim DeChristopher

We think we have no power when in fact we have more than enough power.
