Success Comes Through Rapidly Fixing our Mistakes Rather than Getting Things Right the First Time.

~Tim Harford

British politicians used to be good at misleading people without actually lying.

~Tim Harford

Economics spreads happiness.

~Tim Harford

You show me a successful complex system, and I will show you a system that has evolved through trial and error.

~Tim Harford

People today dont become economists to make the world a better place.

~Tim Harford

We should not try to design a better world. We should make better feedback loops.

~Tim Harford

Love may be boundless and abundant, but time isn't. Time is finite.

~Tim Harford

Failure is inevitable; it happens all the time in a complex economy.

~Tim Harford

There is much more to life than what gets measured in accounts. Even economists know that.

~Tim Harford

Failure in Innovation - it's a price worth paying.

~Tim Harford

There's lots and lots of guys out there. The question is trying to find the right one.

~Tim Harford

A lot of international companies invest in the U.K. as a base for doing business with the rest of the European Union.

~Tim Harford

The more grotesque your boss's pay and the less he has to do to earn it, the bigger the motivation for you to work with the aim of being promoted to what he has.

~Tim Harford

Trying to be able to have, let's say, more than three partners was absolutely impossible, at least for my own relationships.

~Tim Harford

I am aiming my books at anybody with no economics background.
