South Carolina is a great place to be from.

~Tim Scott

We need the private sector to create jobs. If the government could create jobs Communism would have worked, but it didn't.

~Tim Scott

My three P's would be pray, pray first. Second, prepare, and then persist.

~Tim Scott

I think the nation as a whole has a role in making sure that each individual, each citizen maximizes one's potential.

~Tim Scott

Ensuring fairness in the American workplace should be a cornerstone of our economic policy.

~Tim Scott

Just it's as close to magic as you can get in America, education.

~Tim Scott

The fact of the matter is that hope comes from many sources. I think depending on the federal government to be some sort of a savior is false hope.

~Tim Scott

We have to attack those things which stand in the way of America progress. And what stands in the way of American progress right now is the federal government.

~Tim Scott

I have campaigned all over the state of South Carolina. It is the friendliest state in the country. And truly here people judge you by the content of your character not the color of your skin.

~Tim Scott

I think about my grandfather who's 89 years old, and the last thing he needs is more money out of his pocket.

~Tim Scott

The future of the Republican Party and the future of America is based on a values system and the issues that drive those values are on our side.

~Tim Scott

I think you hear, at least as an undertone, and it's going to grow louder, is that we believe that capitalism is the mantra of the day and anything that creeps towards socialism is a problem.

~Tim Scott

I think when you look to the future what you'll find is that the Republican Party is building a bigger party base on stronger values.

~Tim Scott

As I have traveled throughout my Congressional district, the one thing I heard loud and clear was simply please stop spending money you do not have, rein in spending, live within a budget.

~Tim Scott

I was warmly embraced by the Tea Party. They openly seek more minorities.

~Tim Scott

And the Tea Party represents many of us who believe that we are taxed enough already. We believe in free markets.

~Tim Scott

I see myself as a person who wants to serve the constituents within my district and find a way to move those who are not in our position philosophically to our position.

~Tim Scott

Conservative principles place growth and opportunity at the forefront, and I look forward to the RNC continuing to promote those values in communities across the nation as we grow the party.
