You might as well tell God what you think. He already knows it anyway.

~Todd Burpo

...when I was angry at God because I couldn't go to my son, hold him, and comfort him, God's son was holding my son in his lap.

~Todd Burpo

What is childlike humility? It's not the lack of intelligence, but the lack of guile. The lack of an agenda.

~Todd Burpo

I think sometimes we think faith is about having all the answers. It isn't. But it's the thing that keeps you steady and in peace in the midst of storms.

~Todd Burpo

How do you scare some sense into a child who doesn't fear death?

~Todd Burpo

Jesus clearly viewed children as precious - and that if he loved kids enough to say that adults should be more like them, we should spend more time loving them too.

~Todd Burpo

It is the opposite of ignoranceâ€”it is intellectual honesty: to be willing to accept reality and to call things what they are even when it is hard.

~Todd Burpo

In a boxing match, the fighters absorb some vicious blows because they're ready for them. And usually, the knockout punch is the one they didn't see coming.

~Todd Burpo

It's fun to talk about heaven, about the throne of God and Jesus and Pop and the daughter we thought we had lost but will meet again someday. But it's not fun to talk about how we got there.

~Todd Burpo

Is heaven a hope or as real as the earth and sky?

~Todd Burpo

Like an engineer understands a car he or she designed, no one understands your limitations and possibilities better than the God who created you.

~Todd Burpo

The Bible's been attacked. What is truth? It's relative.

~Todd Burpo

Sometimes laughter is the only way to process tough times

~Todd Burpo

I'd once heard a spiritual "riddle" that went like this: "What's the only thing in heaven that's the same as it was on earth?" The answer: the wounds in Jesus' hands and feet.
